

Name: _____

Date: _____

Social Studies Learning Intentions

- I can explain how and why humans used tools to satisfy their daily needs.

Evidence:

- I can explain the meaning of the hunter-gatherer lifestyle.

Evidence:

- I can explain the importance of farming.

Evidence:

- I can explain three theories as to how farming started.

Evidence:

- I can explain how farming resulted in the formation of cities.

Evidence:

- I can explain how farming resulted in the development of other skills.

Evidence:

- I can explain how and why technology was used by people in ancient civilizations to adapt and modify their environments.

Evidence:

- I can explain how and why technology was used by people in ancient civilizations to satisfy their needs.

Evidence:

- I can explain how and why technology was used to increase exploration and trade.

Evidence:

- I can explain how and why technology was used to develop their culture

Evidence:

- I can explain how and why geography affected where human settlements took place in an ancient civilization.

Evidence:

- I can explain how and why climate affected where human settlements took place in an ancient civilization.

Evidence: